Subject: FW: Save the Date for Exit Counseling - May 2

Now that you have matched, here is your reminder about exit counseling. Two things are required...

- Online Counseling = it will be available next month. You'll receive an email from me when it is ready.
- Group Session May 2 = If you will not be able to attend the group session, please email me for an individual appointment.

The attached packet will help get you organized. [Pre-counseling Packet sent on January 25, 2013]

Let me know if you have questions!
